

Q&A

John Kraemer,
Gary Kraemer,
& Jeff Kraemer

How did you get your start in custom homebuilding?

John Kraemer & Sons was founded in 1978 by the late John Kraemer and his son and current president, Gary Kraemer. With two of Gary's three sons, John and Jeff, involved in the business, John Kraemer & Sons will be around well into the future to build, remodel, and warranty our clients' homes.

What are the most important elements of a successful build team?

We're only as good as the team we assemble, so we make sure to assemble a winning team. We pride ourselves on focusing solely on high-quality construction and then find the perfect match in the architects and designers we team up with for our projects. A cohesive, collaborative, organized team is essential to any successful project. It's important to have a lot of fun together along the way too!

What do you wish others knew about your company?

That over our 45-year history, almost 99% of our projects have come from referrals. We pride ourselves on going above and beyond for our clients, ensuring their building experience is exceptional not only throughout the process, but long after they move into their new home. This level of customer service and care makes it easy for our clients to refer us to their friends, family, and colleagues who are looking to build or remodel their homes.
