The FACE of
Luxury Home
Building

Founded in 1978 by current president Gary Kraemer and his late father, John, John Kraemer & Sons has become renowned for custom luxury homebuilding and remodeling. Their forty-five-year history, built upon a foundation of ethics and integrity, has been rewarded with being named Builder of the Year five times, making them the only five-time winner of the award in its history. They work individually with each of their clients on a 100-percent open-book basis, where every invoice, receipt, bid, and discount is disclosed to their clients at all times. Gary is not only proud of John Kraemer & Sons' forty-five-year past, but is even more excited for the future. With two of his three sons, John & Jeff, in the business, their clients can take comfort in knowing that John Kraemer & Sons will be around well into the future to build, remodel, and most importantly, service their homes.
